

Unabhängige Meldestelle – Recommended specialists

	Annemarie Zingg-Kambly Annemarie Zingg-Kambly is a qualified supervisor and coach (BSO) and is 'actively retired' in Zollikofen, Bern. She is self-employed, loves her consultancy work and enjoys a wide variety of physical and mental activities.
	Ursula Wälty-Gautschi Dr Ursula Wälty-Gautschi is a specialist in psychiatry and psychotherapy and has been running her own practice in Schönenwerd/SO since 2008. Her psychotherapeutic approach focuses on a systemic approach with an emphasis on resources and solution-focused therapy, complemented by elements of schema therapy.
	Simon Waber Simon H. Waber, Lic. phil., is a specialist psychologist in psychotherapy (FSP) and a federally recognised psychotherapist since 2019, with his own practice in Oberdiessbach/BE. He offers goal-oriented and individualised psychotherapy for depression, anxiety, trauma, life crises and other issues.
	Daniel Zwiker Guided by the motto 'Do as God does, become human!', Daniel Zwiker has been working as a federally recognised psychotherapist for 26 years, the last 16 of which in his outpatient practice in Gümligen near Bern. He supports young people and adults, as well as couples, and, upon request, incorporates faith into the process of overcoming crises. Daniel Zwiker studied theology and spent 10 years working primarily with young people. He then studied social behavioural sciences in Germany, psychotherapy sciences and person-centred psychotherapy in Zurich. He has been married to Regina for 28 years.